

Technology that Powers the Future of Senior Living Communities

Technology is an integral part of your community, and you need someone who understands its nuances to keep things running smoothly.

Dual Path is your technology partner for the entire lifecycle of your property.

From the initial network design to resident support and IT services, our team of experienced professionals creates customized solutions to fit your business. We provide comprehensive packages custom-fit to your organization's needs.

Customized to Your Needs

- Strategic consulting and technology planning based on your business initiatives and goals
- Custom applications, integrations, and API development designed for specifically for your properties

End-to-End Management

- A single partner to manage all aspects of technology in one seamless experience
- Experts engaged at every level to deliver your connectivity, communications, IT, and custom application needs

Evolution & Adaptability

- Stay ahead of the competition with technology that makes a difference for your staff and residents
- Recommendations based on growth, scale, budget, technology shifts, and business continuity

Concierge & Support

- 24/7 North American based end-user support, helpdesk, NOC, and security operation center
- All the support you need in one place
- Compassionate Support™ for your residents

Featured Solutions

Technology Infrastructure: Network Design, Low Voltage Cabling & CCTV

Our expert technicians design and install your low voltage cabling to ensure your network is reliable and scalable, and our cloud-powered surveillance systems protect your assets during construction.

Connectivity: High Speed Internet, IoT Applications & Support

Put our team of highly experienced engineers to work for you, providing expertly managed network services, monitoring, and Compassionate Care Support for your staff and residents, plus energy management solutions and IoT applications.

Entertainment & Communications: DIRECTV, PBX & Cloud Voice, Digital Signage

Ensure reliable communication for essential staff and resident calls with our cost-effective phone solutions and provide an easy-to-use TV experience with interactive entertainment options including your own branded TV channels and digital signage.

Managed IT Services: IT Monitoring, Cybersecurity, IoT & Support

Our team offers specialized IT knowledge and experience, including a Virtual CIO and services ranging from cyber security and access control to Property Management Software support.

Custom Software Solutions: MyCommunities White-Label App & Platform

Leverage the MyCommunities App to increase resident engagement, improve renewal rates, and enhance staff efficiency in your communities or work with us to build a custom solution for your portfolio.

Find out how you can step into a seamless technology experience today.

Connect with us: hello@dualpath.net